

Our uncompromising quality

Your patients trust your recommendations, and you can trust Abbott's commitment to glucose monitoring tech.

State-of-the-art manufacturing

Built at our facilities in Europe and the U.S., we ensure sensor quality with:

- Rigorous testing and individual tracking
- Precise factory-calibration—so your patients don't have to do it themselves

Trusted data security

We work to ensure data security in our CGM devices and systems by:

- Adhering to local privacy and cybersecurity standards
- Striving to safeguard all personal health data

Smart quality checks

Quality assurance within our systems' design:

- Every sensor conducts over 20,000 self-checks during its wear period
- Sensor readings are only displayed once they have passed these smart quality checks

Commitment to customer care

Our exceptional customer care team is there to help with:

- Simple or complex questions
- Sensor replacement—we take care of it quickly and free of charge⁵

Proven performance

FreeStyle Libre systems have documented a high level of accuracy¹ plus:

- Peer-reviewed clinical studies demonstrating real-world results²⁻⁴
- Routine post-market quality monitoring
